

FIDIC Code of Ethics

The International Federation of Consulting Engineers recognises that the work of the consulting engineering industry is critical to the achievement of sustainable development of society and the environment.

To be fully effective not only must engineers constantly improve their knowledge and skills, but also society must respect the integrity and trust the judgement of members of the profession and remunerate them fairly.

Responsibility to society and the consulting industry

The Consulting Engineer shall:

Accept the responsibility of the consulting industry to society.

Seek solutions that are compatible with the principles of sustainable development

At all times uphold the dignity, standing and reputation of the consulting industry.

Competence

The Consulting Engineer shall:

Maintain knowledge and skills at levels with development in technology, legislation and management, and apply due skill, care and diligence in the services rendered to the client.

Perform services only when competent to perform them.

Integrity

The Consulting Engineer shall:

Act at all times in the legitimate interest of the client and provide all services with integrity and faithfulness.

Impartiality

The Consulting Engineer shall:

Be impartial in the provision of professional advice, judgement or decision.

Inform the client of any potential conflict of interest that might arise in the performance of services to the client.

Not accept remuneration, which prejudices independent judgement.

Fairness to others

The Consulting Engineer shall:

Promote the concept of "Quality-Based Selection" (QBS).

Neither carelessly nor intentionally do anything to injure the reputation, or business of others.

Neither directly nor indirectly attempt to take the place of another consulting engineer, already appointed for a specific work.

Not take over the work of another consulting engineer before notifying the consulting engineer in question, and without being advised in writing by the client of the termination of the prior appointment for that work.

In the event of being asked to review the work of another, behave in accordance with appropriate conduct and courtesy.

Corruption

The Consulting Engineer shall:

Neither offer nor accept remuneration of any kind which in perception or in effect either a) seeks to influence the process of selection or compensation of consulting engineers and/or their clients or b) seeks to affect the consulting engineer's impartial judgement.

Co-operate fully with any legitimately constituted investigative body, which makes inquiry into the administration of any contract for services or construction.
